

Catch ^{the} Twain

THE MUSICAL

America's greatest humorist comes roaring back to life in a hilarious, profound, touching and musical new show.

*“Against the assault of laughter
nothing can stand.”*

“Have a place for everything... and keep the thing somewhere else.”

“The man who is a pessimist before 48, knows too much; if he is an optimist after it, he knows too little.”

“Nothing so needs reforming as other people’s habits.”

“An honest man in politics shines more than he would elsewhere.”

“We ought never to do wrong when people are looking.”

“April 1... is the day upon which we are reminded of what we are the other 364.”

Warren Brown is Mark Twain: newspaperman, raconteur, riverboat pilot, inventor, world traveler, social commentator and preeminent novelist. Brown has spent over thirty years researching the life and work of Mark Twain and portraying him in spoken-word performances across the country.

“Brown reaches out to people and makes them laugh and learn at the same time.”
HUMANITIES NEBRASKA

Folk musician and songwriter Mark Dvorak provides the sound track for Brown’s performance with old-time banjo tunes, period songs and audience participation.
